SOUTH PACIFIC VOYAGES 2008 In the wake of the Navigators Tallship Voyages across the South Seas

The South Pacific with its enchanting islands, warm hospitable people, colourful history, rich and ancient customs does stir the mind and excite the imagination. Our voyages take us to the authentic Pacific as the ship sails to islands still untouched by modern tourism. Sail with us retracing the paths of ancient navigators through the heart of Polynesia.

We seek out the hidden Pacific - the remoter places of this vast ocean that we have discovered during Soren Larsen's years sailing before the tradewinds.

A spectacular ocean passage takes us to Rapa Nui - Easter Island, an extended adventure onwards to the Bounty mutineers last refuge at Pitcairn and the rarely visited Marquesas. From Tahiti we sail west on a series of voyages across the heart of Polynesia, to the Cook islands, Robert Louis Stevenson's Samoa and colourful Fiji into the untouched beauty and undisturbed culture of the islands of Vanuatu.

NEW ZEALAND

December 2008 - Feb. 2009

The North Island coast combines spectacularly beautiful scenery with ideal sailing conditions and climate. The pristine waters that Captain James Cook first chartered 240 years ago can be explored today aboard this magnificently restored square rigger.

The Hauraki Gulf is a protected Marine Park and whales and dolphins abound in its waters. On these coastal adventures we will visit its isolated islands, hike ashore and see unique New Zealand birdlife.
